

Daily Business Report

November 15, 2007

LEGAL

Michael Abramson has been elected partner at Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith. Abramson practices corporate and business law, real estate law and trust and estate planning. He has been with the firm since 2003. Abramson is a member of the business, tax and estate planning sections of the San Diego County Bar Association. Before practicing law, he co-founded the computer ergonomics company HealthyComputing.com, where he later served as v.p. Abramson graduated cum laude from UC Santa Barbara and received both his law degree and a master's degree in taxation from the USD School of Law.